Mid-Course Exam and Custom Content

1. After completing all ten study modules, you will take your Compass Mid-Course exam. This is a 160 question HESI Exit exam modeled on NCLEX topics that will either be proctored by your school faculty or remotely proctored. Information about this exam will be listed on the Study Plan page.
2. Your results for the Compass Mid-course exam will be used to provide you with a customized NCLEX prep plan focusing on your weaker areas.

NOTE: The Compass Mid-Course Exam can be one of the HESI Exams used for an in-program assignment. This is for your Compass coach and your school’s faculty to decide.

3. This content will include Custom Quizzes and Case Studies.
4. The study content will be organized by topic area and will display each of your topic scores to help you focus on your weaker areas.

Compass Final and Studying for the NCLEX

1. After working through your personalized study materials, you will then take another HESI Exit Exam which will serve as your Compass Final exam.
2. After completing the final exam, you will have access to the Course Wrap-Up.

You're on the last leg of preparing for your NCLEX exam. Use the following study and testing materials to gauge your readiness for the NCLEX.

Complete following tasks to finish this module:

- Final Study Plan | 10 hrs
- Comprehensive Exam | 1 hr 30 mins
- Post-Course Survey | 3 mins
- Post-Course Self-Reflection | 5 mins
3. Your Compass Final HESI Exam scores will be used to generate a new personalized Final Study Plan with custom quizzes and case studies that you can continue to use after your Compass course ends to prepare for your NCLEX exam.
4. The Course Wrap-Up will also include a Comprehensive Exam. This exam is available to take up to three times, however, only your first attempt will report to the Compass gradebook.

5. At the end of your Compass course, you will have access to a Post-Course Survey to provide feedback on your experience. You will have access to your Compass course for 90 days after the Final Exam so that you have a personalized study resource helping you bridge the gap between graduation and NCLEX.
