Preparing Your Students with EHR Practice

Clinical preparedness | March 23, 2022

Now, more than ever, we know the value of preparing new nurses with the knowledge, skills, and ability to hit the ground running, ready to provide safe and effective patient care from day one. Hear from nursing education specialist Hollie Moots on how faculty can provide their students with authentic learning experiences through EHR practice available in SimChart and the value of providing the next generation of nurses with these skills early in their education.
